Scenario Briefing

Good evening driver. The RHTT season is in full swing and the Anglia diagrams operate from and back to Stowmarket. One of the diagrams sees the RHTT working over the southern end of the Great Eastern mainline with a booked stop at Ilford EMUD. After that the train heads back to Stowmarket with another booked stop in Ipswich yard. You've been rostered on to this service and are now on board the train waiting in Ilford EMUD. You have some time to get your train set-up and can then depart at the scheduled time. Remember - the maximum permitted speed for your train is 60mph
