Scenario Briefing

Good morning driver. Richter Janssen GmbH are timber merchants who use the railway for regular shipments of lumber. Today you've been rostered on to a service taking empty wagons to Köditz where they are exchanged with loaded wagons which are then moved to Kronach.

Having completed your wagon swap a while ago, you've now reached Marxgrün where you've had a booked stop. You are due to depart here at 07:58 so get set-up and head out as soon as permitted.

Once underway again you have no booked stops until you reach Kronach although you may encounter adverse signals as you wait to be passed by on-coming passenger services.

Your motive power is a single Voith Maxima 40CC and the maximum permitted speed for your train is 100 kph.
